KMFA 89.5

Link: www.kmfa.org

This is an old-school radio station located in Austin, Texas, that happens to have an online streaming channel that fits within the constraints of this guide.

Their focus is classical music. Their offer ranges from Baroque, to the Modern period, including classical arrangements of contemporary pop songs. Chamber, Cantata, Concerto, Mass, Opera, and so on, you can find all of those here. This is the single best radio for all of you classical music fans.

R/a/dio

This radio station is also part of the community of an anonymous image board, but it can be safely ignored.

They focus mostly on anime and game soundtracks, if that's your jam, you will probably like this. It's also possible to request songs, but i haven't used this feature, so i don't know if it works.

Hackers.town radio

Hackers.town is a fediverse instance that also happens to have an radio stream that i discovered by chance. Their music selection is very eclectic, so whatever label i might throw will probably be too narrow. I can't recommend it enough, very nice tunes there!

Wrapping up

These are only a handful of the hundreds, if not thousands, of online radios that you can find online, and they were subject to my own tastes and technical preferences. But surely there's a radio out there that's more suited to your own likes. If you feel like exploring this world, i would be thrilled to know your findings and get to know more radios. If you'd like to do so, please mail me to tsui@sdf.org.

Happy listening!
