_____ Long story short. Stayed at Institute of Mental Health for a couple of months. Short-sighted, but some have eyes but do not see, don't Bible write or record so? So-called myopia bother me not very much. G!D opens my eyes as He sees fit, and G!D is unseen, so what do ya have to see that much anyway? Not all eyes are those that you see on me, you know.

Ran into encounters with so-called 'men in blue'. Story another time maybe. No entry into any prison in Singapore as the layman know it, but troublesome enough. Pride compasseth the eyes of some people, and it is all the will of G!D, that they may have pride, and that keeps me from becoming proud.

For I am nothing without the Anointed One, through whom I can do all things. 'I am the vine; you are the branches. You are nothing without Me.' – Jesus, son of Mary, who calls himself son of Man.

Yet as written in Scripture, with gladness do I boast in troubles, hardships, trials from G!D, persecutions, oppressive rulers, and draconian acts of torment and so-called 'discipline' and 'corrective action', and name-calling, and public rejection and labelling, and blame-games that are played with my thoughts and hearts and soul and mind and consciousness and emotional sensitivity, for the sake of the Anointed One, who calls himself the son of man.

(What's a blame-game? that is, to lay blame on others for whatever that come upon you - for G!D knows and I do not know. Yes, why G!D hath done upon you what He did, G!D knows and I do not know, for His ways are higher than my ways and your ways. This calls for patient endurance and wisdom. And trust in G!D, who loves justice and detests wickedness, and is swift and severe and terrible in punishment. For we- our consciences are clear before men and G!D, as Scriptures have on record. And victory is overwhelmingly ours.)

And delight will I in my weaknesses. For I am strong when I am weak. You have me made to be like a fool, boasting like this, even though I am nothing at all, and do not count myself among the so-called 'super-apostles' (or the most eminent apostles). I ought to be receiving commendations from you lot, even though I am nothing at all.

For as surely as the LORD G!D lives, we of the spirit of G!D walk in each other's shoes, along the same path. And G!D forbid that I should glory in myself, save in the eternal and one and only sacrifice of the Anointed One, through whom I am crucified unto the world, and the world unto me. And better is the patient in spirit than the proud in spirit. And the end of a thing, as powerful and strong as its beginning. To G!D be the glory forever and ever, now. May the grace of the Anointed One, Jesus, and the love of G!D, and the fellowship of all of those of the Spirit of G!D, be with you lot. _____

Remarks :

That phone number – in any case, and in all ways, and for ever, G!D will do unto you and me and us as He sees fit, and He is the best at planning. And G!D is all-knowing, all-seeing and all-hearing, in truth.
. Now to G!D be the glory forever and ever. And so it is. (Amen, in other words.)

Praise be to G!D, who grants even passage of boats across oceans, who cherishes and sustains the Worlds.
